INPEX receives the “Kurumin” next generation certification logo

INPEX CORPORATION (INPEX) is pleased to announce that it has met certain standards based on the “Act on Advancement of Measures to Support Raising Next – Generation Children*” and received a next generation certification logo “Kurumin” from Tokyo Labour Bureau on 6 August 2012. This logo is awarded to the company conforming to the childcare support standards to improve its labor working condition and environment.

INPEX has been improving its working environment to support employees to balance career and child-raising so as to enhance the talent and performance of the employees.

* The Act on Advancement of Measures to Support Raising Next-Generation Children is the law which aims at creating an environment that encourages the birth and raising of children for Japan’s future. Under the law, the local governments will plan and announce the action program, and also the company will plan the program which supports its employees to manage to work and to support their childcare, and will submit such program to Prefectural Labour Offices.
